Spirit of the Stone
Kris Nahrgang
 Storyteller in Stone
 "Kris Nahrgang is one of the foremost Ojibway soapstone sculptors in Canada, if not North America. Drawing on his Anishinaabe heritage and his surroundings as inspiration for each carving he creates, Kris carves a wide variety of subjects, evoking feelings, places, legend and people. These are translated into intricate soapstone and wood carvings, or acrylics on canvas or hide."

A Tradition of Excellence

Kawartha Arts Festival is one of the most highly respected art shows in Canada. A one of a kind art show with a very high caliber of artists featuring a variety of visual arts and styles.

The Festival has grown to embrace the hearts of our cottagers, local folks and visitors from across the Province.

Admission is free, but with a donation at the door it gives our Patrons a chance to win a door prize.

Just 20 minutes North of Lindsay on Hwy. 121 in Fenelon Falls.
